

Rhonda H. Covarrubias

Rhonda H. Covarrubias, CPA has over 20 years of experience in the pension industry with the Texas Municipal Retirement System (TMRS) in Austin. TMRS is a hybrid defined benefit, cash-balance plan, available to municipalities and their employees across the state of Texas. Rhonda began her pension career as the organization's Investment Accountant, was later promoted to Controller, and is currently serving as the System's Director of Finance. Prior to her employment with TMRS, Rhonda spent five years as an auditor with KPMG, focusing on the government and banking industries. Rhonda is a graduate of Texas A&M University.

Rhonda is currently serving as a Board Member of the Public Pension Financial Forum (P2F2). Rhonda is married and has three children. She enjoys watching sports, playing cards and board games, and swimming. When finding some alone time (which is rare), Rhonda enjoys a day at the spa and reading.
